Local Artist displays paintings at the Falls of the Ohio

T. A. Chapman, who describes himself as a “painter of pictures,” will display his works in the Interpretive Center Lobby On December 19th from 10:00 to 4:00. His eclectic collection spans many years of artistic development. Many, but not all, will be for sale.

Mr. Chapman, a resident of Charlestown, is a long time volunteer at the Falls. Most of his time has been spent interpreting the George Rogers Clark cabin, often in period dress. But his artistic talents were tapped when a mural was needed for a temporary exhibit. His special effects turned the smooth walls into an amazing, three dimensional scene!

The art display will take place in the lobby at no charge.

For more information call (812) 280-9970. The Center is open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday and Sundays from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Admission to the Interpretive Center is $4 for adults and $1 for children age 2 to 18 on Monday through Thursday. Friday, Saturday and Sunday admission is $5 for adults & $2 for children. There is a $2 parking fee which is waived for those visiting the Interpretive Center.
